A special offer from the Champagne Goddess

Instruction in 'The Art of Sabrage'

Have you ever wondered what it feels like to open a bottle of champagne, with a Saber?

Imagine Napoleon Bonaparte's triumphant Officers, galloping through the vineyards of Champagne, celebrating their defeat of the Prussian Army by slicing the top off bottles of champagne!

To celebrate the end of 2023, bring your amazing team-members together with a very special experience:

Learn the Art of Sabrage.

With safe, specific, individual instruction from the Champagne Goddess Susan Le Roux, ten of your colleagues will each be guided through the science behind the action, then be empowered to safely slice the top off a bottle of sparkling wine. The rest of the team will enjoy the open bottles as Susan elaborates on the impact Napoleon Bonaparte had and continues to have on the region of Champagne.

Special price for November + December 2023: $2,500 +gst

Inclusions:

- Stories of Napoleon Bonaparte, his Empire and the impact he made on the industry and region.
- Personal, specific instruction for ten participants to experience the technique.
- The safe set-up, tethering of the cork, preparation, and removal of ten bottles of sparkling wine.
- The use of the Champagne Goddess' Saber, Safety Glasses + Ribbon Tether.
- Ten (10) Memento-boxes for the cork (+cut glass)

Option to add:

- Hire of 120 Champagne Goddess' tasting glasses = $300
- Exchange the ten (10) bottles of Sparkling Wine (provided) with your venue's product (@cost)
- Certificate for each participant: 'The Art of Sabrage' A5 size = $250

Terms + Conditions apply.

- Cost is based on Susan supplying ten (10) bottles of Australian Sparkling Wine
- Instruction offered to ten (10) guests; no limit to number of guests at the event.
- Duration: 2-3 hours. Responsible Service of Alcohol will apply.
- Susan reserves the right to stop the demonstration if safety, or RSA is compromised.
