

Susan Le Roux

+61 415 735 587

info@champagnegoddess.com.au

www.champagnegoddess.com.au

 Champagne Goddess

 @thechampagnegoddess

The Art of Sabrage

Have you always wanted to learn to saber the top of a bottle of champagne, so that the cork flies right OFF? Just like the Officers of Napoleon Bonaparte's Empire. Theatrically slicing open bottles of champagne with their military swords while marching through the region of Champagne to Paris.

Gather a group of dear friends and celebrate each other by safely mastering 'the Art of Sabrage'. Take turns to learn the science behind the art, and celebrate each other's achievement.

Add-on 'Licence to Saber' (personalised wallet-sized certificates) to prove your new skill.

Inclusions for 4-10 persons:

- Anecdotes and stories from the region of Champagne, history of Napoléon and his influence on Champagne
- Individual, personal instruction for up to ten guests on the science and technique of The Art of Sabrage
- One bottle of sparkling wine per person (4-10 guests)
- Two tasting glasses per person; polished, set-up and removed at end of session (3 hours)
- The use of Champagne Goddess' Saber, Safety Glasses + Ribbon Tether;
- Ten (10) Memento-boxes for the cork (+cut glass)

Cost for 10 guests *sabering sparkling wine = $2,200 incl.gst

Additional guests who wish to saber = $80pp; No charge for other guests not participating in the Sabrage experience.

Cost for 1-3 guests using your own supplied champagne = $880 incl.gst

Ideal for a Wedding or 'Zero' Birthday

Opportunity to add:

- Individual 'Licences to Saber' or A5-sized Certificates @$25pp
- Replace the sparkling wine with champagne @retail-cost
- Management of the purchase/delivery/chilling and arrival of additional champagne/sparkling wine @$300.00
- Event Management per hour to source a suitable venue; canapés or additional food + beverage

Terms + Conditions:

- Presentation fee includes set-up, safe instruction, removal of empty bottles+ sabered corks.
- Prices above apply to Sydney CBD/surrounds. Regional or interstate events will require travel time and/or domestic flights and accommodation.
- Responsible Service of Alcohol will apply.
- Susan reserves the right to stop the demonstration if safety is compromised.

